Contemporary and sleek interior design giving the feeling of being outdoors

With ultimate architecture and technology, Aqua Libra's Interiors combine innovative design with modern amenities in a truly unique manner to offer the perfect charter experience.

The elegant and spacious main salon features finely grained woods, luxurious fabrics, eco-friendly materials and tasteful decorative elements offering a contemporary aesthetic with a hint of opulence. It is framed by eye-catching spectacular panoramic sea views thanks to the top to bottom windows. The flood of natural light is further emphasized by the light walls and sofas, creating a bright and modern space.

Gorgeous and comfortable, the dining area is wisely designed to host friends and family gatherings, where masterfully tailor made cuisine is served.

Aqua Libra sleeps up to 11 guests in five exceptionally decorated staterooms. An atmospheric full beam master suite is located on the main deck, featuring huge full height windows, private dressing room, his and hers bathrooms at the same level with the master suite. Descending to the lower deck four lavish suites are brilliantly set. Two VIP cabins with a queen size bed and Two twin cabins convertible to double cabins with king size bed, one with a pulman berth all with ensuite facilities.

Her contemporary physiognomy is further underlined by the state - of - the - art audio and video technology integrated in a user friendly way and the use of owned personal devices to stream music and video through Apple TV and Sonos systems.

The image shows the interior of a master suite on a yacht named 'Aqua Libra'. The room features two large, curved, light-colored upholstered armchairs with a geometric pattern on the backrests. Between the chairs is a round, light-colored ottoman with a dark tray on top, holding a bottle of champagne, two glasses, and some fruit. The room is dominated by large, curved windows that offer an uninterrupted panoramic view of the blue sea and a distant, hilly coastline. The windows are framed by white curtains. The overall atmosphere is bright and luxurious.
